

Events and Conferencing

Nottingham Trent University

The Lyth Building

The newest addition to the Brackenhurst campus, the Lyth building has become the flagship venue at our stunning rural campus.

State of the art teaching and research rooms are available for smaller meetings and events complemented by a large modern retractable seating lecture theatre, reception area with exhibition space, outdoor areas and dining facilities.

Surrounded by 500 acres of beautiful Nottinghamshire countryside, it lends itself perfectly to organisations with an interest in the environment, sustainability and agriculture and those looking to step away from city centre locations. The diversity of this new venue makes it perfect for a variety of events from meetings and conferences to exhibitions, weddings and dining experiences.
